

FOREST GROVE AND BOSTON

Mrs. Geo. Fowler

February is the birth month of those greatest of American citizens, Washington and Lincoln. Let us not forget to honor the memory of the man who gave us a country and the man who saved it.

L. D. Needham and sons visited at Geo. Fowler's Monday.

Archie and Glenn Joyce visited Hays and Orville Clements, Sunday.

Mrs. George Fowler visited Mrs. L. D. Needham Tuesday.

Homer Rakestraw sawed wood for Frank Harrington Tuesday.

John Lee lost a colt one night last week and C. W. Jackson also lost a horse.

L. D. Needham took wood to Lamar Tuesday.

George Brown and Al Quinn hauled gravel from Boston last week.

J. W. Rakestraw went to Jasper Tuesday after a load of oats.

Louis Brown is working for Clint Ridgley.

Frank Harrington took a load of corn to Lamar Tuesday.

John Lee and Earl Clements were Lamar visitors Tuesday.

Cal Oldham succeeded in buying Ira Stahl out last week. Ira had rented the Oldham farm for a year and had put in his wheat for the coming season when Mr. Oldham decided to stay on the farm for a year or two yet.

George Fowler took a load of wood to R. W. Fowler's Thursday.

The Forest Grove Women's Farm Club met Thursday with Mrs. Barbara Dion. Fourteen members were present. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Della Brown, February 24. Our subject for discussion will be Dairy-ing.

Mr. Dion has rented the place where Ollie Dumolt lives and Mr. Dumolt will move to the place where Mr. Elliott lives.

Charlie King visited his brother John King Thursday.

Chas. Tabler and wife called at Lawrence Trout's Friday.

Mrs. L. D. Needham and little son were Lamar visitors Friday.

The Forest Grove Women's Farm Club will give a social Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Martin.

Mrs. C. W. Jackson was a Lamar visitor Thursday.

It was decided by the farm club men at their meeting Wednesday night, that they would have a membership drive to try and get new members. Chas. Kunkler and Budd Boss were chosen leaders and then they chose up sides and the side that gets the least members will have to serve an oyster supper to the winning side.

There was a dance at Carl Slate's Friday night.

Mr. Peterson and family from Kansas spent Friday night at George Fowler's. They were on their way to Philippsburg, Mo.

Harold Harrington visited J. W. Rakestraw's Saturday.

Virgil Martin purchased three tons of baled hay from Frank Clements.

Fred Fowler spent Saturday night with his grandparents in Lamar.

George Fowler lost a horse Saturday night.

Alma and Flossie Rakestraw visited Gladys Needham Saturday. John Lee has joined the Odd Fellows.

Gladys Needham visited Mrs. George Fowler Sunday.

Leo and Harold Needham visited the Rakestraw boys Sunday.

George Brown took a load of coal to Lamar Friday.

Fred Fowler took a load of wood to Mr. McArthur in Lamar Monday.
